...from the Pastor...

...The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ --- Corpus Christi – from a homily by St. Thomas Aquinas... included in the Divine Office for the Solemnity.

Since it was the will of God's only begotten Son that men should share in his divinity, he assumed our nature in order that by becoming man he might make men gods. Moreover, when he took our flesh he dedicated the whole of its substance to our salvation. He offered his body to God the Father on the altar of the cross as a sacrifice for our reconciliation. He shed his blood for our ransom and purification, so that we might be redeemed from our wretched state of bondage and be cleansed from all sin. But to ensure that the memory of so great a gift would abide with us forever, he left his body as food and his blood as drink for the faithful to consume in the form of bread and wine.

O precious and wonderful banquet, that brings us salvation and contains all sweetness! Could anything be of more intrinsic value? Under the old law it was the flesh of calves and goats that was offered, but here Christ himself, the true God, is set before us as our food. What could be more wonderful than this? No other sacrament has greater healing power; through it sins are purged away, virtues are increased, and the soul is enriched with an abundance of every spiritual gift. It is offered in the Church for the living and the dead, so that what was instituted for the salvation of all may be for the benefit of all. Yet, in the end, no one can fully express the sweetness of this sacrament, in which spiritual delight is tasted as its very source, and in which we renew the memory of that surpassing love for us which Christ revealed in his passion.

It was to impress the vastness of this love more firmly upon the hearts of the faithful that our Lord instituted this sacrament at the Last Supper. As he was on the point of leaving the world to go to the Father, after celebrating the Passover with his disciples, he left it as a perpetual memorial of his passion. It was the fulfillment of ancient prophecies and the greatest of all his miracles, while for those who were to experience the sorrow of his departure, it was destined to be a unique and abiding consolation.

Know that in this bread is the body of Christ which hung on the cross, and in this cup the blood of Christ which flowed from his side. Take, therefore, and eat his body. Take, therefore, and drink his blood. And you will become members of his body. Eat this sacred food so that your bond of unity with Christ may never be broken. Drink this sacred blood, the price he paid for you, so that you may never lose heart because of your sinfulness. And you will become members of his body

Have you noticed the Parish debt lately? Check the info on the next page!

We're now under $200,000!
Less than a year to go till we're debt-free! Then we'll finish the interior of Church! Keep up the good work, everybody, and Thank You!

.....Happy Father's Day to all the dads among us.....a prayer for families for this day from Ed Hays' Prayers for the Domestic Church...

Blessed are You, Lord and Father of all life, who has given to us the gift of the father of our family. Today, we honor him, and we thank You for the numerous good things that are ours because of him.

His love for us has been a sign of Your divine affection and a sharing in Your holy love.

His continuous concern for our needs and welfare is a mirror of Your holy providence.

And so, as we honor him, we praise You, Father of all peoples.

Bless him this day with Your strength and holy power that he may continue to be a sign of You, our God, and a priestly parent to our family.

May we who have the honor of bearing his family name do so with great pride.

May we, the members of his family, assist him in his holy duties as a parent with our respect, our obedience, and our deep affection.

Bless him, Lord, with happiness and good health, with peace and good fortune, so that he who has shared of his very life may live forever with You, his God and heavenly Father.

This blessing and all graces, we pray, descend upon the father of our family: in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

...Blessings to you and your family for a great and memorable Father's Day celebration!

Families requesting financial assistance need to be actively involved in the parish.

PSR Catechists Needed

Are you a faith-filled Catholic who enjoys working with children or teens? We are always in need of positive role models to pass on the Catholic faith to the next generation. I am looking for a few new people to join our PSR Catechists and will be interviewing for our upcoming 2017-18 school year.

We are in need of a 4th grade and special needs teacher. You will receive a Catechist Teaching Guide, training and be teamed with a seasoned teacher to help you your first year. Team-teaching and substitute teachers are also needed. It is helpful to have or be working towards a teaching or special education major but it is not required.

Please pray about your decision and contact Rose Wieschhaus at wieschhausr@stsja.org or 636 926-0021 for an interview. Mature high school seniors and college students who are practicing Catholics are especially welcome.

Solidifying a Church date should be the first step in your preparation. Then other reservations can be made. Call 636-441-7503 to speak with Fr. Brockland or Fr. Gahan.
